Gospel Reflection

LET YOUR 'YES' TO GOD BE SEEN IN YOUR LIFE

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Today's readings remind us that God does not ask for perfect words, but for a willing heart and a faithful life. We are invited to turn back to God, walk humbly with Christ, and let our "Yes" to Him be seen in our actions.

The first reading from the prophet Ezekiel gives us a beautiful message of conversion and hope. God does not condemn us simply because of our past; what matters is whether we are willing to turn back to Him and begin again. Ezekiel says that when the wicked person turns away from sin and begins to do what is right, that person will live. This reminds us that no one is beyond the mercy of God. Sometimes we say, "I have made too many mistakes; God cannot forgive me." But God is always ready to receive the repentant heart. St. Augustine, who experienced his own long journey of conversion, prayed: "Late have I loved you, Beauty ever ancient, ever new." His life teaches us that it is never too late to return to God. Do not allow your past to prevent you from beginning again with God.

The second reading takes us deeper by presenting Jesus Christ as the model of humility and self-giving. St. Paul tells us to have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus, who humbled Himself, became a servant, and was obedient even to death on the cross. Christianity is not simply about coming to church, praying, or knowing the right words; it is about learning to put others before ourselves. St. Teresa of Calcutta expressed this spirit beautifully when she says, "I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot; together we can do great things." True humility is not thinking that we have no value; it is recognizing our value while being willing to serve others. The closer we become to Christ, the more willing we should be to serve, forgive, sacrifice and think of others.

In the Gospel, Jesus gives us the parable of the two sons. The first says "No" to his father but later changes his mind and goes to work; the second says "Yes" but never goes. Jesus asks, "Which of the two did his father's will?" The answer is clear: the one who actually went. This challenges us because it is possible to say many beautiful things about God without actually doing His will. We can say, "Lord, I love you," but fail to forgive; say, "I trust God," but refuse to surrender; say, "I will serve," but never serve. Pope Francis reminded us that "faith is not something decorative... it is to be lived." So today, Jesus gives us more than a message. He gives us an invitation.

This week, let us choose one concrete way to say "Yes" to God. By forgiving someone we have been holding a grudge against, or reaching out to someone who is lonely, or returning to prayer, or going to confession, or serving someone in need, or simply being more patient with the people God has placed in our lives. Do not leave today saying only, "Yes, Lord." Leave here ready to act. If there is something God has been asking you to do, do not postpone it. Go into your home, your workplace, your family, and your community, and let your life become your answer to God.

May our "Yes" to God not remain on our lips, but become visible in our hands, our choices, our forgiveness, and our love. Amen.

Fr. Emmanuel Ogla, VC

Current Events and More

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Adoration this week will be in the parish Chapel on Friday, October 2 beginning at 9 am. All are welcome to come by and spend some time with the Lord. At 5:45 pm we will begin the Evening Prayers and Benediction.

You can also sign up for a specific time slot at <http://signup.com/go/puKbjK>. Signing up allows us to make sure that all the time slots are covered.

Mortgage Support Collection

St. Benedict Church will be taking a second collection this weekend, Sept 26/27, to support our mortgage payment plan.

We kindly invite you to contribute to this effort by giving a little extra each month. Every contribution, big or small, brings us closer to paying down the debt.

Mortgage Support Collection envelopes are in the pews, or use the QR Code, here. Thank you so much, we appreciate your help.

Prayer for Priesthood Sunday

Gracious and loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests.

Through them, we experience
your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.

Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength
they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

Vocations

"Which of the two did the will of his Father?"
 (Matthew 21:31)

This weekend, on Priesthood Sunday, we give thanks for priests who humbly serve God's people. Celebrate this day by writing a note of gratitude and encouragement to a priest who inspires you. Remember in prayer the priest who baptized and confirmed you. Pray for Fr. Manasseh and Fr. Emmanuel and support those discerning this vocation.

For more information about the priesthood or consecrated life, reach out to the Vocation Office at the Diocese of Phoenix at 602.354.2000. You can also go to the website at <http://dphx.org/vocations>.

Gospel of Life Collection

Next weekend, October 3/4, we will have the Gospel of Life Collection. The goal of this appeal is to collect funds so that the Diocese of Phoenix can continue its mission to uphold the right-to-life of all people from conception to natural death. Envelopes will be located in the parish lobby and by the south doors to the church.

Blessing of the Animals

We celebrate the life of St. Francis of Assisi on Saturday, October 3, at 9 am when we do a blessing of the animals here at St. Benedict! Come to the church, under the bell tower, with your pet on a leash or in a carrier for a special blessing.

Reflexión sobre las Escrituras

QUE TU «SÍ» A DIOS SE REFLEJE EN TU VIDA

Mis queridos amigos en Cristo,

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que Dios no nos pide palabras perfectas, sino un corazón dispuesto y una vida fiel. Se nos invita a volver hacia Dios, a caminar con humildad junto a Cristo y a que nuestro «sí» a Él se refleje en nuestras acciones.

La primera lectura, del profeta Ezequiel, nos transmite un hermoso mensaje de conversión y esperanza. Dios no nos condena simplemente por nuestro pasado; lo que importa es si estamos dispuestos a volver a Él y empezar de nuevo. Ezequiel dice que cuando el malvado se aleja del pecado y empieza a hacer lo correcto, esa persona vivirá. Esto nos recuerda que nadie está fuera del alcance de la misericordia de Dios. A veces decimos: «He cometido demasiados errores; Dios no puede perdonarme». Pero Dios siempre está dispuesto a acoger al corazón arrepentido. San Agustín, que vivió su propio y largo camino de conversión, rezaba: «Tarde te he amado, Belleza siempre antigua, siempre nueva». Su vida nos enseña que nunca es demasiado tarde para volver a Dios. No permitas que tu pasado te impida empezar de nuevo con Dios.

La segunda lectura nos lleva más allá al presentarnos a Jesucristo como modelo de humildad y entrega. San Pablo nos dice que tengamos la misma actitud que había en Cristo Jesús, quien se humilló a sí mismo, se hizo siervo y fue obediente hasta la muerte en la cruz. El cristianismo no consiste simplemente en ir a la iglesia, rezar o saber las palabras adecuadas; consiste en aprender a anteponer a los demás a nosotros mismos. Santa Teresa de Calcuta expresó este espíritu de forma maravillosa cuando dijo: «Yo puedo hacer cosas que tú no puedes hacer, tú puedes hacer cosas que yo no puedo hacer; juntos podemos hacer grandes cosas». La verdadera humildad no consiste en pensar que no tenemos ningún valor, sino en reconocer nuestro valor y estar dispuestos a servir a los demás. Cuanto más nos acercamos a Cristo, más dispuestos debemos estar a servir, perdonar, sacrificarnos y pensar en los demás.

En el Evangelio, Jesús nos cuenta la parábola de los dos hijos. El primero le dice «no» a su padre, pero luego cambia de opinión y se pone a trabajar; el segundo le dice «sí», pero nunca va. Jesús pregunta: «¿Cuál de los dos cumplió la voluntad de su padre?». La respuesta es clara: el que realmente fue. Esto supone un reto para nosotros, porque es posible decir muchas cosas bonitas sobre Dios sin cumplir realmente su voluntad. Podemos decir: «Señor, te quiero», pero no perdonar; decir: «Confío en Dios», pero negarnos a entregarnos; decir: «Te serviré», pero no servir nunca. El papa Francisco nos recordó que «la fe no es algo decorativo... hay que vivirla». Así pues, hoy Jesús nos ofrece algo más que un mensaje. Nos hace una invitación.

Esta semana, elijamos una forma concreta de decir «Sí» a Dios. Ya sea perdonando a alguien a quien le guardamos rencor, tendiendo la mano a alguien que se siente solo, volviendo a la oración, yendo a confesarnos, ayudando a alguien que lo necesite o, simplemente, siendo más pacientes con las personas que Dios ha puesto en nuestras vidas. No te vayas hoy limitándote a decir: «Sí, Señor». Vete de aquí dispuesto a actuar. Si hay algo que Dios te ha estado pidiendo que hagas, no lo pospongas. Ve a tu casa, a tu lugar de trabajo, con tu familia y a tu comunidad, y deja que tu vida sea tu respuesta a Dios.

Que nuestro «Sí» a Dios no se quede solo en nuestros labios, sino que se haga visible en nuestras manos, en nuestras decisiones, en nuestro perdón y en nuestro amor. Amén.

A Note From The SJB Principal

Dear St. Benedict Parishioners,

Thank you to everyone who made last night's Bosco Gala a night to remember.

It was an evening of real camaraderie — and a resounding success for the students of St. John Bosco Catholic School. We are deeply grateful to our school and parish communities whose generosity makes this mission possible.

We are beyond grateful that Bishop Dolan could be with us to help celebrate our 25th anniversary. His presence was a gift to our families, our faculty, and our Church.

To our title sponsors, Gala sponsors, every donor, and every parent who showed up and gave: this level of support is a sign that Catholic education is truly valued. Because of you — and because of our pastoral leadership — SJB can retain high-caliber teachers and staff, keep our facilities updated and secure, and hold the high academic standard our families trust.

We are honored that parents continue to entrust us with their children's minds and souls. Twenty-five years in, we are not standing still. We are going to keep getting better.

Rooted in faith. Rising in excellence.

Joyful Blessings,
 Jamie Bescak, M.Ed., Principal
