Gospel Reflection

THE CALL TO HOLINESS BY BECOMING SAINTS IN OUR EVERYDAY LIVES

My Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints, honoring all those who have lived faithfully in God's grace and now rejoice in His heavenly kingdom. When we hear the word saint, we may think of people who performed extraordinary miracles, lived many centuries ago, or spent their entire lives in monasteries. Saints are ordinary people who allow God to do extraordinary things through their lives. They are people who choose love over hatred, forgiveness over revenge, honesty over corruption, and faithfulness over sin. Some saints were priests and religious; others were parents, workers, young people, and ordinary members of society. The question is not whether we are called to holiness, but whether we are willing to answer that call. Today reminds us that heaven is our true home and that, with God's grace, we too can become saints.

In the first reading, St. John sees a great multitude of God's servants who are sealed and protected by Him. The vision reminds us that God knows His people and remains faithful to those who belong to Him. The saints are not people who never experienced difficulties, temptations, or suffering; rather, they are people who remained faithful to God through the struggles of life and through difficult moments. They trusted Him even when circumstances were difficult and refused to abandon their faith when confronted with trials. This reading encourages us to remain steadfast in our Christian vocation. In a world where dishonesty, hatred, corruption, and selfishness can sometimes appear to be the easiest paths, we are called to stand firmly for what is right. Holiness is not achieved in a single day; it grows through daily choices to obey God, serve others, and remain faithful to the Gospel. We may not be famous in this world, but if we remain faithful to God, our names are known to Him. The important thing is not how many people applaud us on earth, but whether we are living in a way that leads us closer to heaven. But are we living in a way that leads us closer to heaven?

St. John, in the second reading, reminds us of the extraordinary love of God by declaring that we are called "Children of God," and that is what we are. What a beautiful privilege! We are not merely God's creatures, but through Christ we are invited into a relationship with Him as His beloved children. St. John further explains that although the fullness of what we shall become has not yet been revealed, we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him because we shall see Him as He is. This gives us hope and a reason to pursue holiness. A child often learns by observing and imitating a loving parent. As God's children, we are also called to imitate our heavenly Father by showing mercy, practicing justice, forgiving those who offend us, and loving even those who do not merit our love. We grow in holiness when we allow God's love to transform us day by day. Every time we reject sin, reconcile with someone we have offended, help a person in need, or choose truth over falsehood, we take another step towards becoming the people God created us to be.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes, which describes the attitudes and virtues of those who belong to God's kingdom. He blesses the poor in spirit, the meek, those who mourn, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers, and those who suffer persecution for righteousness' sake. These teachings reveal that the path to holiness is different from the world's definition of success. The world may celebrate wealth, power, popularity, and revenge, but Jesus teaches us that true blessedness is found in humility, mercy, purity of heart, and faithfulness to God. Do we possess these qualities? To be poor in spirit means to depend on God rather than pride ourselves on our achievements. To be merciful means to forgive rather than seek revenge. To be a peacemaker means to build unity rather than spread division. And to hunger for righteousness means to desire what is right even when doing so comes at a cost. We do not become saints simply by admiring the saints; we become saints by imitating their love for God and their faithfulness in daily life.

Let us therefore ask ourselves: Which Beatitude do I need to practice more in my family, workplace, parish, and community? May the saints intercede for us, and may God grant us the grace to live holy lives so that one day we may join them in the eternal joy of heaven. All Holy Saints of God, Pray for Us. Amen.

Reflexión sobre las Escrituras

LA LLAMADA A LA SANTIDAD: CONVERTIRNOS EN SANTOS EN NUESTRA VIDA COTIDIANA

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Hoy la Iglesia celebra la solemnidad de Todos los Santos, en honor a todos aquellos que han vivido fielmente en la gracia de Dios y que ahora se regocijan en Su reino celestial. Cuando oímos la palabra «santo», puede que pensemos en personas que realizaron milagros extraordinarios, que vivieron hace muchos siglos o que pasaron toda su vida en monasterios. Los santos son personas corrientes que permiten que Dios haga cosas extraordinarias a través de sus vidas. Son personas que eligen el amor en lugar del odio, el perdón en lugar de la venganza, la honestidad en lugar de la corrupción y la fidelidad en lugar del pecado. Algunos santos eran sacerdotes y religiosos; otros eran padres, trabajadores, jóvenes y personas corrientes de la sociedad. La cuestión no es si estamos llamados a la santidad, sino si estamos dispuestos a responder a esa llamada. El día de hoy nos recuerda que el cielo es nuestro verdadero hogar y que, con la gracia de Dios, también nosotros podemos llegar a ser santos.

En la primera lectura, san Juan ve una gran multitud de siervos de Dios que están sellados y protegidos por Él. La visión nos recuerda que Dios conoce a su pueblo y se mantiene fiel a quienes le pertenecen. Los santos no son personas que nunca hayan pasado por dificultades, tentaciones o sufrimientos; más bien, son personas que se mantuvieron fieles a Dios a lo largo de las pruebas de la vida y en los momentos difíciles. Confiaron en Él incluso cuando las circunstancias eran difíciles y se negaron a abandonar su fe ante las pruebas. Esta lectura nos anima a mantenernos firmes en nuestra vocación cristiana. En un mundo en el que la deshonestidad, el odio, la corrupción y el egoísmo pueden parecer a veces los caminos más fáciles, estamos llamados a defender con firmeza lo que es justo. La santidad no se alcanza de un solo día; crece a través de las decisiones diarias de obedecer a Dios, servir a los demás y permanecer fieles al Evangelio. Puede que no seamos famosos en este mundo, pero si nos mantenemos fieles a Dios, Él conoce nuestros nombres. Lo importante no es cuánta gente nos aplauda en la tierra, sino si vivimos de una manera que nos acerque más al cielo. Pero, ¿vivimos de una manera que nos acerque más al cielo?

San Juan, en la segunda lectura, nos recuerda el extraordinario amor de Dios al afirmar que somos llamados «hijos de Dios», y eso es lo que somos. ¡Qué hermoso privilegio! No somos meras criaturas de Dios, sino que, a través de Cristo, se nos invita a entablar una relación con Él como sus hijos amados. San Juan explica además que, aunque aún no se ha revelado plenamente lo que llegaremos a ser, sabemos que, cuando Cristo se manifieste, seremos como Él, porque le veremos tal como es. Esto nos da esperanza y una razón para aspirar a la santidad. Un niño suele aprender observando e imitando a un padre cariñoso. Como hijos de Dios, también estamos llamados a imitar a nuestro Padre celestial mostrando misericordia, practicando la justicia, perdonando a quienes nos ofenden y amando incluso a quienes no merecen nuestro amor. Crecemos en santidad cuando dejamos que el amor de Dios nos transforme día a día. Cada vez que rechazamos el pecado, nos reconciamos con alguien a quien hemos ofendido, ayudamos a una persona necesitada o elegimos la verdad en lugar de la mentira, damos un paso más hacia convertirnos en las personas que Dios quiso que fuéramos.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos presenta las Bienaventuranzas, que describen las actitudes y virtudes de quienes pertenecen al Reino de Dios. Bendice a los pobres de espíritu, a los mansos, a los que lloran, a los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, a los misericordiosos, a los de corazón puro, a los que traen la paz y a los que sufren persecución por causa de la justicia. Estas enseñanzas revelan que el camino hacia la santidad es distinto de la definición de éxito que tiene el mundo. Puede que el mundo ensalce la riqueza, el poder, la popularidad y la venganza, pero Jesús nos enseña que la verdadera bienaventuranza se encuentra en la humildad, la misericordia, la pureza de corazón y la fidelidad a Dios. ¿Poseemos estas cualidades? Ser pobre de espíritu significa depender de Dios en lugar de enorgullecernos de nuestros logros. Ser misericordioso significa perdonar en lugar de buscar venganza. Ser un artífice de la paz significa fomentar la unidad en lugar de sembrar la división. Y tener hambre y sed de justicia significa desear lo que es correcto, incluso cuando ello conlleva un sacrificio. No nos convertimos en santos simplemente admirando a los santos; nos convertimos en santos imitando su amor por Dios y su fidelidad en la vida cotidiana.

Preguntémonos, pues: ¿Qué bienaventuranza necesito practicar más en mi familia, en mi lugar de trabajo, en mi parroquia y en mi comunidad? Que los santos intercedan por nosotros y que Dios nos conceda la gracia de llevar una vida santa para que, algún día, podamos unirnos a ellos en la alegría eterna del cielo. Todos los santos de Dios, rogad por nosotros. Amén.

A Note From The SJB Principal

Dear St. Benedict Parishioners,

We are thrilled to share that we not only reached our $150,000 Gala fundraising goal — we exceeded it, raising approximately $162,000! This incredible outpouring of generosity from our SJB families, sponsors, alumni, parish community, and friends will directly support our students through a new Christ Our Life Religion curriculum (K-8), Eureka Math (K-5), restroom updates, Jr. High Chromebooks, technology improvements, and other campus needs. Funds from our three major fundraisers — the Bosco Gala, Running with Rosco, and Birdies Fore Bosco — continue to invest in the exceptional Catholic education our children deserve.

The excitement from our 25th Anniversary Gala lives on as students enjoy the special teacher experiences and one-of-a-kind adventures won that evening — from Principal for the Day and Night at SJB to class trick-or-treating and more. Because we surpassed our goal, we are also bringing back a fan favorite: Sundae on a Monday! On November 2, students will have the chance to turn Principal Bescak into one giant human sundae.

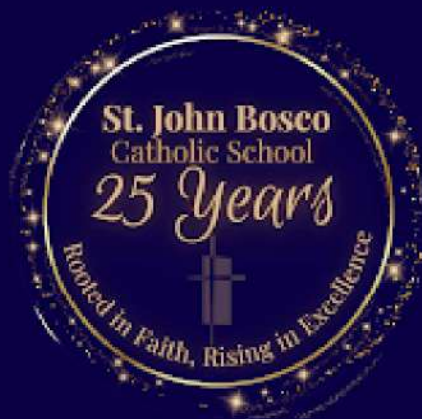

As we continue to celebrate 25 years, we remain grateful for the extraordinary people who make SJB a place where faith is formed and leaders are born.

Joyful Blessings,

Jamie Bescak, M.Ed., Principal
